

Cover letter

Dear Sir / Madam,

I did the present letter am writing to present myself and show express my interest to get in working for the COMPANY.

Why am I applying?

- I am currently finishing the my Mmaster in of Management – Corporate Finance degree.
- I desire to start my career in a company that allows me to progress as a professional and as a person.
- I know how important the language iss are, and because of it I have developed these English(?[1]) skills doing through self-study and with Erasmus, and auto-learning every day. Being multilingual is very important for an international career, which is my goal. I want Internationals experiences, because I will be fell realised.

• This is very important for me to get ready for an international career that is my goal.

Motivation for the choice

COMPANY is an recognized international group operating in various markets, that can provide greats careers. Fand food dDistribution is a competitive activity field which requires quality staff to manage it.

I am aware of the difficulties to get this opportunity, but I am sure I have the competencies searched COMPANY is looking for, I have great ambitions, and I look forward to learning new skills by the company. I have got a great ambition and I am looking forward to learn new skills.

Why I consider myself profile suitable for this are a position?

My educational background gave has given me the opportunity a possibility to study various management disciplines in the management area. With my focus on Being my profile more directed to the corporate finance, I also like to understand better how to deal with people.[2]

I would also add that I also have accounting experience – I am a TOC [3] official accountant in Portugal. knowledge in accounting (I am TOC official accountant in Portugal), that could be important.

I hope believe that my diversified (Management, Financial, Taxes, Accounting) knowledge in management, finance, taxes, and accounting will be useful beneficial to this position, and but more than that I will be able to adapt myself to, facing the challenges of the job.-

Social skills

I am sociable by nature and during my school, I always lived in a student's university residence that eventually developed myself me even more in that aspect. It's easy for me to establish connections with people, and Particularly, due to my way of being it's easy for me to establish connections.-

I have ability to deal with people, I have always assumed the group coordinator role in the scholarly works projects. For One example, that I was able to motivate people to establish was the creation a student's commission representative of for the students that live in university residences.

Relevant experiences

- When I finished my bachelor's degree, I went to London for almost six months and to I worked in different places I worked for an agency [4] and also four McDonalds. This experience it was really adventurous and make me grow as person.

Cover letter

- Erasmus in the University of Lille – France
- Worked in Maputo have known the daily Mozambican life^[5]

I believe that these experiences and my education, as outlined further in my curriculum vitae, make me a prime candidate for COMPANY. If you need any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you for your time, and I look forward to hearing from you soon. This letter is small to show all my information's/motivations, thus can be complemented with the CV information's and I hope with an interview. I expect now that you want to know me better, thereby should you need any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.